

Honeymoon Checklist

Six Months Before Departure

- Discuss the specific type of honeymoon you each want – tropical resort, city tour, cruise, etc.
- Set a budget.

Five Months Before Departure

- Finalize your choice of honeymoon destination.
- Contact a trusty Travel Consultant

Three Months Before Departure

- Make your reservations and send in all necessary payments.
- Travel with peace of mind by purchasing travel insurance.
- Ask what travel documents you will need – passports, visas etc.
- Check on the inoculation requirements for the country you will be visiting.

Two Months Before Departure

- Start putting together a list of things you want to pack

One Month Before Departure

- Buy luggage, camera, sunglasses etc.
- If you already own a camera, make sure it's in working order, pack more film or memory cards and batteries than you think you'll need.
- Make sure all your credit cards are up to date
- Make a copy of your travel itinerary, along with phone numbers where you can be reached, to leave with someone at home in case of emergency.
- Make a list of everything you will need for your trip including clothes, toiletries, and accessories.
- Book limo or travel arrangement to airport.

One Week Before Departure

- Get traveller's cheques.
- Pack all medication in your carry-on bag.
- Pack in your carry-on bag a change of clothes and any other essentials – such as a toothbrush or contact lens supplies (in case your suitcases get lost or stolen).
- If you need foreign currency for your honeymoon, exchange at least enough money ahead of time to get you from the airport to your hotel
- Reconfirm all reservations.

Day of Departure

- Make sure you have your money and any travel documents in your carry-on baggage.
- Make sure to take a copy of your marriage license along with you.
- Reconfirm the flight once again right before you leave home.
- Arrive at the airport early to avoid any last minute problems
- Most importantly, RELAX and ENJOY. It's your HONEYMOON!!!!